A Message To You!

As mom, sister, friend, a student, teacher, and mentor in the lives of many; please mourn now then move on to the greater task of showing respect to all, being a care-giver to others, and being a part of team building when working together for the greater cause. Let "Peace and Love" be planted in your heart; therefore, it leaves no room for pride, worry, selfishness, or unbelief.

Remember, we've shared a many good times!

Acknowledgements

The family of Jacqueline Riggins Edwards extend a sincere thanks to everyone for the generosity, encouragement, support, and prayers you've shown during our time of need. May you continually be blessed.

Pallbearers

Jacqueline Riggins Edwards was born on April 13, 1941 in Lyons, Georgia. She passed peacefully at UF Health Jacksonville.

Jacqueline was attended New Stanton High School in Jacksonville, Florida. She furthered her education in the field of medicine and as a C.N.A. Jacqueline dedicated 20 years of service at River Garden Hebrew Home. After retirement, she studied and was certified through the State of Florida to parent foster & adopted children. She enjoyed entertaining, reading, cooking, and traveling the world.

Jacqueline was an active member of the Eastern Star Chapter 199 in Jacksonville. Later she dedicated her life as a Jehovah's Witness where she enjoyed serving and doing ministry work. Jackie loved all and shared her love through cooking, stories, and conversations with all who would listen.

Jacqueline is survived by her sister, Doris Brown Peacock; daughter, Deborah Fulton (Jerome); sons, Michael Childres (Jennifer) and Akeem J. Edwards; granddaughter, Stephanie Trotman (Jason); grandson, Alex V. Childres, Jr.; and a host of loving family members, friends and spiritual brothers and sisters.
