The Recessional "I'll Fly Away"

"God Saw You Getting Tired"

God saw you getting tired when a cure was not to be.
So He wrapped His arms around you, and whispered,
"Come unto me".

You didn't deserve what you went through, and so He gave you rest. God's garden must be beautiful,
He only takes the best.

So when I saw you sleeping, So peaceful and free from pain, I could not wish you to come back, to suffer that all again.

Obituary

I loved for those who loved me for those who know me true for God in Heaven that smiles upon me, and awaits my coming too.

Carolyn Utley Williams was born on January 7, 1951 to the late James and Annie Mae Baker Utley in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida. Carolyn was a high school graduate from Dillard High School, Class of 1969 and a graduate of Benedict College in Columbia, South Carolina. Carolyn relocated to Jacksonville, Florida to serve as the Director of Food Services with Canteen Vending where she devoted 20 years of service with the company. Carolyn truly loved God to the fullest and enjoyed spending time with her family and friends.

Carolyn departed this life on Monday, April 8, 2019. She was preceded in death by her brothers, James Conaway Utley, Jr., John Willie Utley and Eugene Utley.

As Carolyn faced health challenges, she was cared for diligently by three faithful and dedicated women, a sister, Cathy Elaine Eason; a daughter, Krystal Kennedy and her niece, Dominique S. Eason whom all devoted their lives to caring for her.

Carolyn leaves to cherish her memories: three loving and devoted children, Harold Burns (LaShawn), Krystal Kennedy and Kathie Campbell (Patrick); five grandchildren, Cortez Burns, Brittany Elaine Marshall, Matthew Nowell, Bryce Nowell and Bree Scott; special relatives, Helen Hamilton, Alissia Austin, Kymberly Green, Kristen Jordan and Jamillah Kariem; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

"In Loving Memory"

A Letter To Our Mother, Sister, Grandmother & Auntie

We are missing your smile, your laughter, your voice, your love but most importantly your presence. God gave us the best gift we could ever have and we truly were blessed to have you in our life, to show us, teach us, nurture us, lead us and guide us to be the best people we could be.

We are going to miss you every day for the rest of our lives. Thank you for the time we had with you.

We love you now always and forever.

Elaine, Harold (Tiger), Krystal, Kathie, Cortez, Brittany, Bryce, Matthew, Bree & Dominique
