Obituary

Richmond Kwame Assamoi, age 51, was born October 12, 1967 to Mr. and Mrs. Koko Ngouan in Ghana. Richmond known as "Ato or Big Daddy to some and Clement" to many. He studied agricultural engineering and learned the skills for success in life. At a young age, Richmond moved to the United States with nothing and made something for himself.

Richmond became an entrepreneur and built many businesses from the ground up. He loved people and had friends all around the world, and could make anyone laugh with one of his many jokes. Richmond embraced life with his passion for cooking, traveling, and gathering with friends. He loved life and lived it to the fullest.

Richmond unexpectedly departed this life Tuesday, April 23, 2019 in Jacksonville, Florida. He was preceded in death by his parents and siblings, Grace Forjoe and Lawrence Ngouan.

Richmond is survived by his wife, Stacy Prince Assamoi; children, George, Precious, Jazlyn and Thomas to carry on his legacy. His siblings, Andre Ngouan, Fran Avery and Christina Agboka. Richmond will live on forever in our hearts and memories.

To Those I Love & Those That Love Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go; I have so many things to see and do; you must not tie yourself to me with tears; be happy that we had so many years; I gave you my love, you can only guess how much you gave me in happiness; I thank you for the love you have shown but now it's time I traveled on alone.

So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for a while that we must part, so bless the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away for life goes on so if you need me, call and I will come though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near. And if you listen with your heart, you will hear, all my love around you, loud and clear. And then, when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you at Heaven's gate with a smile and a "Welcome Home."
