To Those I Love & Those That Love Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go; I have so many things to see and do; you must not tie yourself to me with tears; be happy that we had so many years; I gave you my love, you can only guess how much you gave me in happiness; I thank you for the love you have shown but now it's time I traveled on alone.

So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for a while that we must part, so bless the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away for life goes on so if you need me, call and I will come though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near. And if you listen with your heart, you will hear, all my love around you, loud and clear. And then, when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you at Heaven's gate with a smile and a "Welcome Home."

Acknowledgements

The family wishes to express our deep appreciation and sincerely thanks for your kind expressions of sympathy during our time of bereavement. Your comforting expressions of sympathy will always be remembered with sincere gratitude. Special thanks to Pastor Renita McCray and Deacon Johnny McCray for always being there; your kindness will never be forgotten. May God forever bless each of you.

Reflections of a Wonderful Man

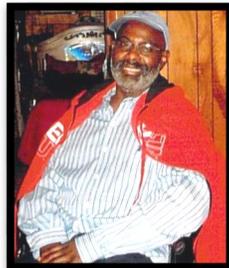

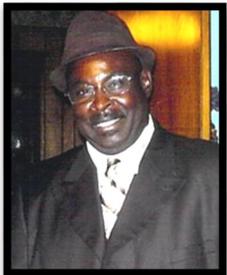

Deacon Donald Eric Taylor

Deacon Taylor was born on June 9, 1957 to the late Elbert and Helen Taylor in Jacksonville, Florida. He attended the Public School System, graduating from Englewood High School. Deacon Taylor was employed by the City of Jacksonville for several years. After attending Road Master Driving School he began his career as a truck driver and drove for many years until his unfortunate illness.

Deacon Taylor gave his life to Christ and diligently sought Him. He was ordained as a deacon, sung in the male choir and was very active in the ministry at Mt. Zion Missionary Baptist Church. He was joined in marriage to Denise Taylor on September 19, 2010 their love was everlasting and stood the test of time.

Deacon Taylor departed this life on June 6, 2019. He was preceded in death by his former wife, R. Taylor; brothers, Phillip Taylor, Richard Taylor and Lennard Taylor; sister, Janice Taylor.

Deacon Taylor will forever be remembered by his loving wife, Denise Taylor; brothers, Leonard Taylor and Ricky Taylor; step-children, Shurronn (Chelsea) Sibley and Laqueshia (Quinton) Phelps; and a host of other family members and caring friends.
