~ I'm Free ~

Don't grieve for me, for now I am free. I'm following the path God laid for me. I took his hand when I heard him call. I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found that place at the close of the day. If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, oh yes, these things, I will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life has been full; I've savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief; don't lengthen it now with undue grief. God wanted me now, He set me Free.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent those beautiful flowers that we saw sitting there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words anyone could say. Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts we thank you so much for what ever part.

Celebrating The Life of Sheila Renea Anderson

Sheila was born May 7, 1966 to JoAnn Anderson-Ulmer and Eddie Lee Rhodes in St. Augustine, Florida and graduated from Jean Ribault Senior High School, Class of 1984. Sheila played in the marching band. She continued her education at Concorde in Jacksonville, Florida receiving her certification as a Patience Care Technician, where she worked in the healthcare field for 32 years until her health failed. As a little girl Sheila attended First New Zion Missionary Baptist Church where she sang in the church choir, her favorite song was "It's Going To Rain". Then Sheila and her family joined the Bethel Church. She was loyal, friendly, dependable and a loving mother and grandmother.

Sheila loved to cook; her favorite dishes was, seafood, rice and pasta salad. She was a great organizer for family get togethers, vacation planner, and a cheerleader coach at the YMCA. Sheila departed this life on July 21, 2019.

Sheila leaves to cherish her memories: husband, James Dukes; sons, Jarrard Dixon and James Dukes III (Angel); daughter, Jermia Anderson; special granddaughter, Tre'nyah, Sheila Shakir and nine other grandchildren; mother, JoAnn Anderson-Ulmer; father, Eddie Lee Rhodes (Belleglade, FL); three sisters, Michelle Pool (Ivory), Katrina Ulmer, Wilma Ulmer (Greg); brother, Eddie Lee Turner (Kuwait); 2 god sisters; 1 goddaughter; and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

Sheila was the life of the party, she knew how to keep you laughing and smiling throughout it all. Rest on Sheila, we will see you on the other side.
