23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures, he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of mine enemies, thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever. Amen

Acknowledgement

The family of the late Dan Smith Sr. would like to thank each of you for your love, prayers and all other acts of kindness. We are truly grateful and will personally thank you at a later date.

Celebrating The Life of Dan Smith, Sr.

Dan was born on December 20, 1941 to the late Walter Lee Smith, Sr. and Louvinie Battle Smith in Americus Georgia. He attended Corinth High School. Dan was united in holy matrimony to Lorraine T. Smith in Folkston, Georgia on June 9, 1984.

Dan departed this life on Friday, September 6, 2019. He was preceded in death by both of his parents; son, Dan Smith Jr.; stepsons, Chris Lewis and Conrad Lewis; granddaughter, Porcha Smith; brothers, Walter Smith and Charlie Smith Sr.

Dan leaves to cherish his memories: a loving wife, Lorraine T. Smith; children, Beverly Smith and Malissa; stepdaughter, Harriett Lewis; sisters, Annie Smith and Pula Woods; brother, Horace Smith; aunt, Minnie Battle; uncle, Johnny Smith; sister-in-laws, Linda Smith, Adel King (David) and Rosemary; brother-in-law, Lucious Stewart (Ruby); a host of grandchildren, nephews, nieces and cousins.

God Saw You Getting Weary

God saw you getting weary, so He did what he thought best, He came and stood beside you and whispered, "Come and Rest".

You wished no one a last farewell, nor even said goodbye.

You were gone before we knew it and only God knows why. When God called you to come and rest, you didn't go alone, for part of us went with you, the day God took you home.
