

Ecclesiastes 3: 1-15

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: <sup>2</sup>A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; <sup>3</sup>A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; <sup>4</sup>A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; <sup>5</sup>A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; <sup>6</sup>A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; <sup>7</sup>A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; <sup>8</sup>A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace. <sup>9</sup>What profit hath he that worketh in that wherein he laboureth? <sup>10</sup>I have seen the travail, which God hath given to the sons of men to be exercised in it. <sup>11</sup>He hath made every thing beautiful in his time: also he hath set the world in their heart, so that no man can find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end. <sup>12</sup>I know that there is no good in them, but for a man to rejoice, and to do good in his life. <sup>13</sup>And also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labour, it is the gift of God. <sup>14</sup>I know that, whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it: and God doeth it, that men should fear before him. <sup>15</sup>That which hath been is now; and that which is to be hath already been; and God requireth that which is past.
