To Those I Love & Those That Love Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go; I have so many things to see and do; you must not tie yourself to me with tears; be happy that we had so many years; I gave you my love, you can only guess how much you gave me in happiness; I thank you for the love you have shown but now it's time I traveled on alone.

So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for a while that we must part, so bless the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away for life goes on so if you need me, call and I will come though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near. And if you listen with your heart, you will hear, all my love around you, loud and clear. And then, when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you at Heaven's gate with a smile and a "Welcome Home."

Acknowledgements

Our sincere thanks to our many family members and friends, for every act of kindness, support, sympathy and your prayers during our time of bereavement. Your thoughtfulness has not gone unnoticed. We appreciate you.

Obituary

Morris Shuman was born on October 10, 1930 to Aaron Shuman and Estelle Adams in St. Augustine, Florida. Morris didn't have much of an education, when he was 18 years old he was a middle weight boxer. His career ended early because he was struck by a truck saving his daughter from being hit, which left him with severe injuries.

Morris was able to open and manage a Auto Body Shop in the early 1960's, which he maintained for over 40 years. When he closed his shop he continued doing what he loved and started repairing outboard motors in his yard. He was well known in the community as "Mr. Kool". He will be forever remembered and loved by those who knew him.

Morris departed this life on Saturday, October 26, 2019. He was preceded in death by his parents, Aaron Shuman and Estelle Adams; spouse, Willie Mae Moody; sons, Leonard E. Shuman, Morris Shuman Jr., Marvin Shuman, and Mark T. Shuman and daughters, Joyce Davis and Brenda D. Shuman.

Morris leaves cherished memories with his children, Pamela D. Shaw (Burnace), Leon B. Shuman, Carolyn E. Jerido, Rosalyn D. Crumity (Rickey), Darryl T. Shuman and Rhonda A. Edmond (Harold); 19 grandchildren, 38 great-grandchildren and 5 great great-grandchildren; a host of other relatives and friends.
