

Only One Life

Days pass so quickly. The nights come and go. The years melt away like new fallen snow. Spring turns to summer and summer turns to fall. Autumn brings winter then death comes to call. Only one life, so soon it will pass. Only what's done for Christ will last. Only one chance to do His will, so give to Jesus all your days. It's the only life that pays. If you recall you have but only one life. It matters so little how much you may own, the places you've been and the people you've known. It all turns to nothing when placed at His feet. It's nothing to Jesus, just memories to keep. You may take all the treasures from far away lands take all the riches you can hold in your hands, take all the pleasures your riches can buy, but what will it mean when it's your time to die? Only one life, so soon it will pass. Only what's done for Christ will last. Only one chance to do His will, so give to Jesus all your days. It's the only life that pays. If you recall you have but one life.
