~ Life Is Forever, Death Is A Dream ~

If we did not go to sleep at night, we'd never awaken to see the light. And the Joy of watching a new day break, or meeting the dawn by some quiet lake, would never be ours unless we slept while God and all His angels kept, a vigil through this "little death" that's over with the morning's breath. And death, too, is a time of sleeping, for those who died are in God's keeping. And there's a sunrise for each soul, for life, not death is God's promised goal. So, trust God's promise and doubt Him never, for only through death can man live forever.

Acknowledgement

During Mom's illness and passing, our hearts have been made to rejoice by the many acts of kindness extended to our family. Your prayers and expressions of love and sympathy are greatly appreciated. May God's infinite blessings be upon you. A very special thank you to the devoted care givers of the Riverwood Center.

Obituary of Julia Mae Richardson

On August 11, 1925 Julia Mae was born to James Benjamin (J.B.) Lucas and Millie Hood Lucas in Pearson, Georgia. Julia was the youngest of three children. She was educated in the local schools of Atkinson County.

It was in Nashville where she met and married a widower, Albert James (A.J.) Richardson with two children, in April of 1943. She immediately became the mother of Arthur Lewis and Martha Jean. To their union, John Frank, James Curtis, Pearlie Renee and Kimberly Ann were born.

Mrs. Richardson retired from Methodist Hospital in 1989. She was active in her community and a member of the Greenland Ladies' Club. She became a member of the Northside Church of Christ in 1989. For the past six years, she was a resident at the Riverwood Center. Julia Mae participated in activities, recreational outings and absolutely loved playing BINGO. She departed this life Friday, November 8, 2019. She was preceded in death by her parents; two older brothers, Horatio Otis Lucas and James Curtis Lucas, and her three eldest children.

Mrs. Richardson leaves to cherish her memory: three children, James "Curtis" Richardson, Pearlie R. Brown, and Kimberly A. Booker (Darryl); six grandchildren, Luster Jean Worthen-Polk (Ronnie), Arthur L. Richardson Jr. "Rickey," Kymbre Brown, Britney Richardson, India Booker and Jordan Booker; a devoted niece, Alice Sanders of Gainesville, FL; devoted nephews, Johnny Lee Middleton of Valdosta, GA, Hayward "Buddy" Williams of Ft. Lauderdale, FL and Ronnie Richardson of Gainesville, FL; great-grandchildren, great-great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and many very special care givers at the Riverwood Center.
