23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures, he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of mine enemies, thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever. Amen

Celebrating The Life of Wilmer Odom, Jr.

Wilmer was born June 6, 1947 to the late Wilmer Odom, Sr. and Susie Odom. At an early age, he gave his life to the Lord, under the leadership of the late Rev. B.L. Wynn at Abyssinia Baptist Church. He later joined the St. Joseph Missionary Baptist Church family. At age 14 Wilmer's mother, Susie passed and his loving aunt, Dora Geddis raised him.

Wilmer attended Old Stanton High School. He worked very hard to provide for his family as a storeowner, trucker driver and mill worker over the years.

Wilmer departed this life Saturday, November 16, 2019 at George and Margaret Morris Community Hospice Care Center. He was preceded in death by his parents, Wilmer Odom, Sr. and Susie Odom; his son, Michael Dewayne Odom; sister, Valencia Joyce Odom; and aunt, Dora Geddis.

Wilmer leaves to cherish his precious memories: a loving companion and caregiver, Maryetta Henderson; three beautiful daughters, Sharon Harpe (fiancé Isiah Johnson III), Lisa Taylor and Wilmarie Odom; former wife and mother of his children, Clydell Odom; six grandsons, Jermaine, Micheal, Anthony and Joshua Taylor, Jarrell Lyles and Paris Washington; three great-grandchildren, Zion Taylor, Michael Taylor Jr. and Joshua Johaar Taylor; aunt, Hattie Mae Wallace; uncle, Dolly T. Wallace (Cleveland, Ohio); niece, Valencia Daniels (George); nephew, Ron Brown; along with a host of loving cousins and many friends.
