~ A Fallen Limb ~

A limb has fallen from the family tree. I keep hearing a voice that says "Grieve Not For Me". Remember the best times, the laughter, and the song. The good life I lived while I was strong. Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you. Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through. My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest. Remembering all, how I truly was blessed. Continue traditions, no matter how small. Go on with your life, don't worry about falls. I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin. Until the day comes we're together again.

Acknowledgements

We the family of the late Mary W. Hart would like to acknowledge every act of kindness that have been extended to us during our time of bereavement. We are grateful for every prayer, call, text or thought that you provided to our family. It was your many acts of love that has sustained and given us comfort. Special thanks to Pastor Charles J. Mcleod and the New Life Fellowship Church. May God bless and keep each of you.

Obituary of Mrs. Mary W. Hart

Mary was born on February 3, 1948 to Jessie Williams and Annie Mae Thomas in Allendale, South Carolina. She confessed Christ at an early age joining St. Stephens AME Church, Mary later attended Greater New Hope Missionary Church. She attended the Duval County Schools, graduating from New Stanton High School. Mary later met and married Charlie Lee Hart, from this union a son, Rodrick and daughter, Tara were born.

Mary departed this life on Wednesday, November 20, 2019. She was preceded in death by her parents; Jessie Williams and Annie Mae Thomas-Williams.

Mary leaves to cherish her memories a loving family: son, Rodrick Hart; daughter, Tara Hart; grandchildren, Charles Turner, Jr., Terrell Turner and Rashaun White; sisters, Monzell Cohen; Minnie Kelsey-Bridges (Andrew) and Marvette Walker (Sam); brother, Bill Williams (Gwen); aunts, Polly Holmes and Deen Ashley (James) and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

“Those We Love Remain With Us”

Those we love remain with us for love itself lives on, and cherished memories never fade because a loved one's gone. Those we love can never be more than a thought apart, far as long as there is memory, they'll live on in our heart.
