God Saw You Getting Weary

God saw you getting weary, so he did what he knew best. He came and stood beside you and whispered, "Come and Rest". You wished no one a last farewell, nor even said goodbye. You were gone before we knew it and only God knows why. When God called you to come and rest, you didn't go alone, for part of us went with you, the day God took you home.

Acknowledgements

The family of Shelida Jones is deeply grateful for the many loving deeds and kind expressions you have so graciously shared with us. We are honored by your presence today as we celebrate her life. You have helped immensely in easing our burden as we accept God's will. We pray that God will continue to bless and keep you in His care.

Celebrating The Life of Shelida Jones

Shelida Jones was born to Jesse and Hattie Troutman, September 20, 1951 in Macon, Georgia. She moved to Jacksonville, Florida at the age of 14 and attended Darnell Cookman, then New Stanton Senior High School, graduating in 1969.

Shelida joined Northside Church of Christ in 1978 where she was a parishioner for over 30 years; due to her dedication to Christ, she lived her life as a Christian and eleemosynary woman.

Shelida married June 9, 1979, to her predeceased husband; a matrimony that lasted for nearly 32 years until his demise. From that union they had a daughter, Lahtreana Jones and a son, Willis Courtney.

She departed this life on November 23, 2019.

Shelida leaves to mourn her demise two children, Willis Courtney and Lahtreana Jones; three sisters, Deloris Hutchins, Margaret Varnadore (Squire), and Dorothy Jackson (Richard); In-laws, Reginald Jones, Sharon Offord (Allen), Meloney Jones, and many sorrowing family and friends.
