God Saw You Getting Weary

God saw you getting weary, so he did what he knew best. He came and stood beside you and whispered, "Come and Rest". You wished no one a last farewell, nor even said goodbye. You were gone before we knew it and only God knows why. When God called you to come and rest, you didn't go alone, for part of us went with you, the day God took you home.

Acknowledgements

We are deeply grateful for the many loving deeds and kind expressions you have so graciously shared with us. We are honored by your presence today as we celebrate Junior's life. You have helped immensely in easing our burden as we accept God's will. We pray that God will continue to bless and keep you in His care.

Obituary

Alfonzer Robinson Jr, affectionally known as “Junior” in the community, was born and raised in Fernandina Beach, Florida. He grew up on South 9th Street and was a graduate of the class of 1993.

Junior was a Jack of all trades and a master of almost any and everything. He worked in several industries including food service and hospitality to construction, all the way down to the “Can you fix my flat tire?” guy; he did it all! He had a deep profound love for the Florida Gators and his significant other, Shawna, loved Florida State. So, it was truly a home divided.

Junior was preceded in death by his mother, Janie Lee Edwards, and father, Alfonzer Robinson, Sr.

Junior leaves to mourn his passing his daughter, Dennique Robinson, age 24; son, Justyn, Robinson, age 15; brothers, Marques (DeShawn) Robinson, Alton Robinson, Antonio (Cheryl) Austin, and Carlos Hutchinson; goddaughter, Nautica Glanton; godson, KeyShawn (“Binky”) Donley; special baby, Ta’Liyah (“Lee Lee”) Brown; and a host of other relatives, friends, and coworkers who love him dearly.
