~ A Fallen Limb ~

A limb has fallen from the family tree. I keep hearing a voice that says "Grieve Not For Me". Remember the best times, the laughter, and the song. The good life I lived while I was strong. Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you. Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through. My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest. Remembering all, how I truly was blessed. Continue traditions, no matter how small. Go on with your life, don't worry about falls. I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin. Until the day comes we're together again.

Acknowledgements

Our sincere thanks to our many family members and friends, for every act of kindness, support, sympathy and your prayers during our time of bereavement. Your thoughtfulness has not gone unnoticed. We appreciate you.

Life Reflection's of

Mrs. Beulah Mae Lee O'Neal

Beulah was born on December 20, 1931 to Elsie Lee and Willie Mae Hill Lee in Sylvester, Georgia. She was a very loving sister, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, aunt, cousin and friend. Beulah attended local schools in Sylvester, Georgia and Jacksonville, Florida. She moved from Sylvester, GA, to Jacksonville with her family and within a few years, met Johnson H. O'Neal Sr. while he was stationed at the Naval Air Station in Jacksonville. They married on November 21, 1947 and to that union seven children were born. As a military wife, Beulah traveled with her husband and lived in many cities around the United States.

She had a sweet, quiet personality and spirit, and always had a smile on her face. Rather than complain, she looked for solutions to the many obstacles that she faced in life. There was nothing that she wouldn't do for her family. She was graced with many talents and had a passion for sewing. Beulah loved to cook, and she shared many recipes with her daughters and granddaughters, as well as teaching them how to prepare them. She worked various jobs throughout the city of Jacksonville, with her last place of employment being with the State of Florida, Department of Children and Family Services as a Social Worker. She retired after 20 plus years of service.

Beulah departed this life December 20, 2019. She preceded in death by her parents, Elsie Lee and Willie Mae Hill Lee; brother, Willie James Lee; husband, Johnson H. O'Neal Sr. USN, CPO; granddaughters, Leamona Jackson Wilcher and Chandra Bradley.
