Cherishing Family

In Memory of Me

Someday you will remember me
 You'll think of my smile and laughter
 But also know that I am free
 And I'm gone to the hereafter

You won't see me at the corner store
 Nor at the park or hall
 For God has made his decision
 And I had to answer His call

You won't see at the Eastside Reunion
 Eating or cutting a step
 For my strength has left me
 And I've needed lots of help

So I thank everyone that has helped out
 Gave a hug and lent a hand or two
 Who thought it Christ-like to serve
 Realizing it could have could been you

So in memory of good times spent with me
 Find a friend like "Neicy"
 Visit your friends and family
 And let God handle the rest.
