"I thank my God every time I remember you. In all my prayers for all of you, I always pray with joy because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now, being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus. It is right for me to feel this way about all of you, since I have you in my heart and, whether I am in chains or defending and confirming the gospel, all of you share in God's grace with me. God can testify how I long for all of you with the affection of Christ Jesus."

"Yes, and I will continue to rejoice, for I know that through your prayers and God's provision of the Spirit of Jesus Christ what has happened to me will turn out for my deliverance. I eagerly expect and hope that I will in no way be ashamed, but will have sufficient courage so that now as always Christ will be exalted in my body, whether by life or by death. For to me, to live IS Christ and to die IS gain."

Phil. 1:1-8, 18-21

Obituary

Lorria Faye “Penny” Young was born on October 1, 1958 in Jacksonville, Florida to Theodore O. Adams, Sr. and Edna L. Williams. She confessed Christ and united with St. James Missionary Baptist Church in St. Augustine, FL where she was baptized by Reverend Nathaniel Jackson and served as the choir director.

Lorria attended school in Jacksonville and received her diploma from Jean Ribault High School as a graduate of the Class of 1976. After returning to the United States in 1985, she was employed at Southern Bell, the US Post Office and eventually retired from the Internal Revenue Service.

Penny unquestionably loved the Lord. Her love for family ran just as deep. She was a collector of various items of great sentiment such as owls, tea pots, jewelry, and fine crystal but most of all, PEOPLE! Regardless of where her feet trod, she always found family; families and children that she called her own. She lived her life without regret and walked confidently in her gifts, most noteworthy, singing. Her natural 1st soprano voice was impactful and regarded. She served as choir director while stationed in Germany also in various churches throughout her travels. Her smile was perfect and infectious. Her skin was smooth as a new “penny”. So whether you called her momma, sister, Penny, Lorria Faye, aunite, grandma or friend, you will all agree that her heart loved hard, she lived the best she could and she definitely, sung her song.

Penny departed this life on December 29, 2019 and was preceded in death by: Mildred V. McKenzie (maternal grandmother), Theodore O. Adams, Sr. (father), and Dwight R. Adams Sr. (brother).

She leaves to mourn her passing: three daughters, Joy Young (Lashay), Angela Young (Willis), and Virginia Young (DeWayne); eight grandchildren: Dajuan Cheeks, Abigail Young, Keyonne Hartsfield, Marcus Jones, Kelis Ingram, Kalia Ingram, Phoenix Washington, and Wisdom Washington; mother, Edna Adams; brother, Theodore Adams Jr. (Alma); four sisters, Regina Taylor (Charles), Gail Thompson, Teresa Butler (Eugene), and Darnetta Franklin (Ed); nieces and nephews: Melissa Brisbane, Clarence Taylor Jr., Rico Cheeks, Symone Adams, Alexis Adams, Dwight A. Adams, Jerome Adams, Keya Adams, Lakita Adams, Teleisha Adams, Daquan Adams, Nakiyah Adams, Brandon Adams, Robbye Addison, Brisbon Addison, and Corey Farmer; great nieces and nephews: Ashley (Quadrey), Aszloyn, & Adam Brisbane, Clarence III, Cameron, and Ka’ni Taylor; Children in Love: Nicole, Joseph and Mark Brown, and Eric Dandy; and a host of other relatives, Godchildren and friends.
