Grandmother Would Say

Now that I am gone, please don't shed a tear, for I have overcome life's biggest fear. See, that fear is death, but I am very much alive. I'm living a better life in God's great blue skies. See, God called on me, so I had to go, but I still love you all and I want you all to know, that I am the one in a much better place. So, if you're feeling blue, please wipe your face. We've shared some good times and some bad times too, but remember family, to keep God in everything you do, and you will always make it through.
