The Magic of a Grandmother

There was magic in grandmother's touch, and sunshine in her smile.

There was love in everything she did to make our lives worthwhile.

*We found both hope and courage
just by looking in her eyes.*

*Her laughter was a source of joy,
her words warm and wise.*

There was a kindness and compassion found in her embrace,

*And shining down from Heaven above
we see the glow of Grandma's face.*

Love, your grandchildren and great-grandchildren

Obituary

Gussie Lee Jenkins was born in Davisboro, Georgia on September 29, 1943 to her parents, Ozzie Mae Brinson and Arthur Mason. She confessed Christ at an early age uniting with St. Paul Missionary Baptist Church, later joining the Bethel Family, and received her education at The New Stanton High School.

She later met and married Willie Jenkins in Jacksonville, Florida on December 16, 1963. From this union was born one daughter, Tammy Jenkins-Jones.

Gussie departed this life on Friday, January 31, 2020, and was preceded in death by her mother, Ozzie Mae Brinson; father, Arthur Mason; and brother, James Brinson.

She leaves to mourn her passing: husband, Willie Jenkins; daughter, Tammy Jenkins-Jones; grandchildren, Ta'Carra McClendon (Michael) and Daren Deonta' Hicks; great-grandchildren, Jayvian Kinlaw, Ta'mauri McClendon, and Onyx McClendon; a special uncle, Zebbie Brinson; and a host of nieces, cousins, in-laws, and many sorrowing friends.

If Roses grow in Heaven

*If Roses grow in Heaven
Lord, please pick a bunch for me.
Place them in my Mother's arms
and tell her they're from me.
Tell her that I love her and miss her,
and when she turns to smile,
place a kiss upon her cheek
and hold her for awhile.
Because remembering her is easy,
I do it every day,
but there's an ache within my heart
that will never go away.
Love, Tammy*
