

~A Fallen Limb~

A limb has fallen from the family tree. I keep hearing a voice that says "Grieve Not For Me". Remember the best times, the laughter, and the song. The good life I lived while I was strong. Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you. Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through. My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest. Remembering all, how I truly was blessed. Continue traditions, no matter how small. Go on with your life, don't worry about falls. I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin. Until the day comes when we're together again.

Statement of Appreciation

The members of the family wish to express their gratitude for your many kindnesses evidenced in thought and deed, and for your attendance at the visitation.

Obituary

Ira Lee Walker was born December 1, 1943 to the late Willie Lee Coes Sr. and Ira Mae Releford Coes in Fernandina Beach, Florida. She graduated from Peck High School and attended the First Missionary Baptist Church.

Ira married Herman H. Walker, a United States Army Service member, and became a devoted spouse, traveling the world. Ira made Jacksonville, Florida her permanent home. She was ordained as a minister in the Church of God Sanctuary of Praise and was an active member of several local organizations. Ira genially loved others and unselfishly gave of herself.

Ira departed this life Wednesday, April 8, 2020 after a bout with cancer. Four brothers preceded her in death: Veotis Coes, Willie L. Coes, John R. Coes, and Ernest L. Coes. She leaves to cherish her memories, a husband of fifty-eight years, Herman H. Walker of Jacksonville, Florida; children: Iretta Roberts of Jacksonville, Florida; Herman H. Jr. (Dr. Joyce) Walker of Spring Lake, North Carolina; and Kenneth A. (Shirley) Walker of Jacksonville, Florida; brother, Reverend Leonard C. Coes of Cedartown, Georgia; eight grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and sorrowing friends.

Favorite Scripture: 2 Peter 3:9 (NKJV), "The Lord is not slack concerning His promise, as some count slackness, but is longsuffering toward us, not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance."

Favorite Hymn: Life is a Ballgame (Wynona Carr)
