~A Fallen Limb~

A limb has fallen from the family tree. I keep hearing a voice that says "Grieve Not For Me". Remember the best times, the laughter, and the song. The good life I lived while I was strong. Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you. Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through. My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest. Remembering all, how I truly was blessed. Continue traditions, no matter how small. Go on with your life, don't worry about falls. I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin. Until the day comes when we're together again.

Obituary

John Daniel Reed, Jr., affectionately known to his family and friends as “Johnny”, was born in Jacksonville, Florida on June 20, 1959 to John D. Reed, Sr. and Bertha Lee Reed. He confessed Christ at an early age uniting with the Church of God and Christ of the Apostolic Faith. He attended school at Wolfson Senior High, but later obtained his diploma at Job Corp of Texas.

Johnny was loved by all of his family and friends, and will be deeply missed.

Johnny departed this life on Monday, April 13, 2020 and was preceded in death by his father, John Daniel Reed, Sr.; mother, Bertha Lee Reed; sister, April Elaine Reed; and niece, Kizzy Wiggins.

He leaves to mourn his passing three brothers, Amos Reed, Sr., Roderick Reed, Sr., and Eric Reed, Sr.; two sisters, Amandlyn Isom (Dewayne) and Cecily Wiggins (Calvin); 18 nephews and nieces, Larry Reed, Juanita Coakley, Terry Brooks, Sedrick Brooks, Roderick Reed, Jr., Setrina Reed, Amos Reed, Jr., Shonikka Brooks, Eric Reed, Jr., Johnathon Christopher Reed, Daniel Solomon, Kori Reed, Keanna Reed, Elaine Wiggins, Jacquez Reed, Thomas Wiggins, and John Wiggins; many great nephews and great nieces; and a host of other relatives and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I am free. I'm following the path God laid for me. I took his hand when I heard him call. I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found that place at the close of the day. If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, ah yes, these things, I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life has been full; I've savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief; don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me, God wanted me now, He set me Free.
