Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Life's Reflections
Bertha Lee Funderburg Manuel

Mrs. Bertha Lee Funderburg Manuel affectionately known as “Lucy” was born on February 15, 1938 in Santee, South Carolina to the late Lincoln and Nellie Funderburg. Bertha loved the Lord and accepted Christ early in life as a member of Chapel Hill Baptist Church. Bertha received her formal early education in Santee, South Carolina. Excited to grow and expand her dimensions of life, she moved to Jacksonville, Florida with her sister and partner in adventure, the late Thelma Funderburg Washington.

Upon moving to Jacksonville, Bertha attended and graduated from The New Stanton High School Class of 1955. She continued her general education studies at Edward Waters College where she majored in Home Economics. Jacksonville became the foundation where Bertha grew her life and family. She was a generous soul, talented cook, and had a passion for helping others especially children.

Her gifts were amplified as she worked in the food service department for Duval County Public Schools. After 34 years of dedicated service, she retired on July 19, 1993.

During her summers, she continued to give of her talents as she was a part of the Culinary team at Keystone Camp located in Brevard, North Carolina. Bertha dedicated 44 years of service to this summer program and she graced the Camp with her signature smile and warm heart filled with love.

God in his infinite wisdom saw fit to call Mrs. Bertha Lee Manuel from this life on Saturday, June 6, 2020 to rest in peace.
