Where We Will Never Grow Old

*I heard of a land on the faraway strand, this is a beautiful home of the soul.
Built by Jesus on High. There we shall never die. This is the land where we will never grow old. When our work here is done and the life crown is won.
And our trouble and trials are over. All our sorrows will end and our voices will blend. With the loved one who's gone on before, we will never grow old.*

Obituary

Elizabeth Laverne Wilder Lacey was born on December 28, 1932 to the late J. T. and Louise Wilder in Macon, Georgia. She was the oldest of four children. Ms. Lacey attended the Bibb County Public School System where she received her formal education.

Ms. Lacey was affectionately known as “Dot” by her family and close friends.

Ms. Lacey met and married Charlie C. Grady and to that union one child was born. Mr. Grady died after 20 years of marriage. She later met and married Mr. Floyd Lacey who preceded her in death. Ms. Lacey moved to Jacksonville, Florida in 1998 to be with her daughter and family residing in Morris Manor for a number of years. She joined St. Paul Missionary Baptist Church under Bishop John E. Guns where she was a faithful member of Noon Day Bible Study. She also attended the Harris House where she enjoyed going 3 days a week. She and Renee Harris created a special bond that was unbreakable.

Mrs. Lacey’s favorite hobbies included singing, crocheting, and making beautiful scarfs.

Mrs. Lacey earned her wings on Saturday, June 18, 2020 at her residence. She was preceded in death by brother, J. T. Wilder, Jr. Her survivors are daughter, Elizabeth Allen; granddaughter, Bridget L. Allen; sister, Sonya Daniels; brother, Robert Wilder, Sr.; nephews, Robert Wilder, Dexter Wilder, Bruce Wilder, Jerry Daniels (Cheryl), Adrian and Tilthony Daniels; nieces, Aquilla Perkins (Andrea), Yolanda Daniels, and Sabrina Jackson (George); loving caretaker, Ms. Barbara Watson; a host of cousins and great nieces and nephews.
