

~A Fallen Limb~

A limb has fallen from the family tree. I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve Not For Me". Remember the best times, the laughter, and the song. The good life I lived while I was strong. Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you. Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through. My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest. Remembering all, how I truly was blessed. Continue traditions, no matter how small. Go on with your life, don't worry about falls. I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin. Until the day comes when we're together again.

Acknowledgement

Our sincere thanks to our many family members and friends, for every act of kindness, support, sympathy, and your prayers during our time of bereavement. Your thoughtfulness has meant so much to us. May God bless each of you!

Obituary

Mr. Carol Monroe Williams, Sr. was born July 26, 1925 to the late Jessie Williams and Mable Williams in Guinea Virginia. Preceding him in death was his devoted wife, Sara F. Williams; three siblings: two brothers, Elwood Williams and Willie Williams, and one sister, Thelma Coleman. He received his education in the public schools of Caroline County Virginia.

After completing his education, he enlisted into the United States Navy and retired after twenty-three years of service. After retiring from the Navy, he later joined the United States Army Corps of Engineers and retired after sixteen years of service. Mr. Williams was a member of Zion Hope Missionary Baptist Church.

On Monday, July 13, 2020 our loving father was called home to be with the Lord.

He leaves to cherish his memory five children: Barry Williams (June), Angela Williams, Carl M. Williams, Jr. (Sondra), Pamela Williams, and Anthony Williams; two grandchildren, Javacia Williams Floyd and Gary B. Blaylock (Destyni); three great grandchildren; one cousin, Esther Coleman; and a host of nieces and nephews.
