

~A Fallen Limb~

A limb has fallen from the family tree. I keep hearing a voice that says "Grieve Not For Me". Remember the best times, the laughter, and the song. The good life I lived while I was strong. Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you. Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through. My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest. Remembering all, how I truly was blessed. Continue traditions, no matter how small. Go on with your life, don't worry about falls. I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin. Until the day comes we're together again.

Life Reflections

Kathy Ann Simmons was born on June 22, 1973 in Jacksonville, Florida to Carrie Mae Simmons and Fred Cotton. She attended Raines High School and was well known throughout her community as being an amazing daughter, mother, sister, and friend to so many lives. She had a genuine spirit and heart-felt love and care that will always be remembered.

Kathy leaves to cherish these memories; her daughters, Ebony Robinson Wright, Shakeria Simmons; son, Keenan Bryant; son-in-law, Benjamin Wright; brothers, Earnest, Charles, Morris, Norris, Eddie, and Darryl; sisters, Betty and Kimberly; brother-in-law, Bobby Quaintance; sister-in-law, Donna Simmons; and a host of cousins, aunt, uncles, and dearly loved friends.

"Her Journey's Just Begun"

Don't think of her as gone away
Her journey's just begun.
Life holds so many facets,
This earth is only one.

Just think of her as resting
From the sorrows and the tears,
In a place of warmth and comfort
Where there are no days and no years.

Think how she must be wishing
That we could know today,
How nothing but our sadness
Can really pass away.

And think of her as living
In the hearts of those she touched.
For nothing loved is ever lost,
And she was loved so much.
