Acknowledgement

The worth of true friends cannot be measured by words or deeds. Your expressions of sympathy have done so much to lighten our load. We express our humble gratitude for the numerous acts of kindness that you've showered upon us. May the God who sustains us all pour out his richest blessings upon each of you.

Dear Dad,

There's no good way to express it, how I'm feeling, how I'll miss you. All the laughs, the stories, the crazy times, tender moments, the times we shared. We were close, a bond to be treasured. Through the highs and lows, the ups and downs, there were still so many reasons to smile, to laugh. I cherish those times. I did my best to show you my love, to honor you as your daughter. So now, we are left here to remember, to reflect, to respect. Please know you're irreplaceable. You're loved. With God's love, peace and protection, we are never truly parted. Warm thoughts will keep you alive in my heart.

My dad always.

All my love, Tawana
