Don't Cry For Me

*Don't cry for me. I will be okay. Heaven is my home now, and this is where I'll stay. Don't cry for me. I'm where I belong.
I want you to be happy and try to stay strong.*

*Don't cry for me. It was just my time, but I will see you someday on the other side. Don't cry for me. I am not alone.
The angels are with me to welcome me home.*

Don't cry for me, for I have no fear. All my pain is gone, and Jesus took my tears. Don't cry for me. This is not the end. I'll be waiting here for you when we meet again.

Acknowledgements

The family would like to extend our appreciation to our many family members and friends for your prayers, cards, telephone calls, visitation, and all other acts of kindness during our time of bereavement. A special thanks and appreciation to Community Hospice. May God bless each of you!

Life Reflections

The beautiful journey of life began for Betty Jean Jenkins on April 5, 1942. She was born in Monticello, Florida to the late Mrs. Willie Bell and Berry Allen and was one of eight children. Betty attended the local schools of Duval County. She also rendered more than 20 years of dedicated service in the food industry.

She was united in Holy Matrimony to the late Charles Jenkins and was the proud mother of nine children.

Our mother was a member of Deliverance Church of Our Lord Jesus under the leadership of Bishop Reginald Chever. She later transferred her membership to Real World Worship Centers, Inc., where Rev. James Kennerly is the pastor.

Betty answered her Master's call to rest on Saturday, August 22, 2020.

Mama is preceded in death by two sons, Freddie Lee Brown and Arthur Jenkins; her parents, Berry and Willie Bell Allen; siblings, James, Mary, and Bernice. She leaves a legacy of love to be remembered and cherished by her sons and daughters, Montemus Jenkins (Betty), Charlotte Garner, Yvonne Kyles (Ernest), Reginald Jenkins (Laura), Aaron Jenkins, Lisa Jenkins, and Kimberly Kennerly (James); 22 grandchildren; 37 great-grandchildren; 3 great great-grandchildren; sisters, Willie Bell Garvin, Geneva Griffin, Lucinda McQueen, and Inez Dawson; and a host of nieces and nephews, and 3 sisters-in-law.
