Obituary

On Saturday, September 5, 2020, OUR PATRIARCH—A STRONG SOLDIER ended his life's journey. Elder Willie L. Hardy Sr., Overseer of Love, Peace and Joy Ministry of Jesus Christ, Inc., age 77 went home to be with the Lord.

Overseer Hardy was born March 26, 1943 and was a native of Tuscaloosa, AL. He was a loving husband, father, grandfather, elder, preacher, teacher and friend. Overseer Hardy graduated from Druid High School (Class of '61) and in 2007 was awarded an Honorary Doctor of Ministry Degree from Refreshing Faith Bible College. Overseer Hardy was a diligent worker. For years he worked at a grocery store called Pantry Pride. After the closing of that store, he later proudly joined The Home Depot family and worked there for 26 years. Throughout the years, Overseer worked along-side his companion with Love, Peace & Joy Choir, Child-Care and Church. After the passing of his wife, he also worked alongside his daughter in ministry. He was a firm man but was high-spirited, energetic, outgoing, full of life and Godly wisdom.

Overseer Hardy was preceded in death by his mother, Maggie Hinton; his wife, Helen Hardy, and his baby brother, Lucious Vaughn.

Overseer Hardy leaves his love and legacy to his beloved son, Willie L. Hardy Jr. (Takecia Hardy) and daughter Monica Hardy. He leaves a lifetime of fond memories to his brother, Sidney Hardy, Sr. (Lisa Hardy; sisters-in-laws, Betty Davis and Ethel Hues. He leaves hugs and kisses to his precious grandchildren, Timothy Harris, Jr., Jairus Johnson, Lasheala Holloway, Cedric Williams, Jr., and Terrell Simmons. He leaves wisdom to his nieces and nephews, Tonya Hart, Sidney Hardy, Jr., Erika Hardy Henry (James Henry), Cydney Hardy Stewart (Willie Stewart) and Joshua Hardy. Additionally, he leaves to celebrate his life a great-granddaughter and a host of great nieces, nephews, cousins and other extended family members.
