

A Gateway To Life

Death is a gateway we all must pass through to reach that fair land where the soul's born anew.

For man's born to die and his sojourn on earth is a short span of years
beginning with birth....And like pilgrims
we wander until death takes our hand.

And we start on our journey to God's Promised Land.

A place where, we'll find no suffering nor tears.

Where Time is not counted
by days, months or years.....

And in this Fair City that God has prepared
Are unending joys to be happily shared with all of our loved ones who patiently wait,
on death's other side to open
"The Gate"!

When I Must Leave"

When I must leave you for a little while,
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you through the years.

But start out bravely with a gallant smile.

And for my sake and in my name,
Live on and do all things the same.

Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways.

Reach out your hand comfort and in cheer,
And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near
And never, never be afraid to die.

For I am waiting for you in the sky.

"I'm Free"

Don't grieve for me, for now I am free. I'm following the path God laid for me. I took his hand when I heard him call. I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found that place at the close of the day. If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, ah yes, these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life has been full; I've savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief; don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me, God wanted me now, He set me Free!
