To Those I Love & Those That Love Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go; I have so many things to see and do; you must not tie yourself to me with tears; be happy that we had so many years; I gave you my love, you can only guess how much you gave me in happiness; I thank you for the love you have shown but now it's time I traveled on alone.

So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for a while that we must part, so bless the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away for life goes on so if you need me, call and I will come though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near. And if you listen with your heart, you will hear, all my love around you, loud and clear.

And then, when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you at Heaven's gate with a smile and a "Welcome Home."

Acknowledgement

Our sincere thanks to our many family members and friends, for every act of kindness, support, sympathy and your prayers during our time of bereavement. Your thoughtfulness has meant so much to us. May God bless each of you!

Obituary for Royann Blake

Royann was born August 20, 1953 in Chicago, Illinois to Anna Mae Martin and Leroy Blake. She was the first born of five children.

Royann departed this life on Friday, December 4, 2020. She was preceded in death by her parents, a brother 4 years ago, Charles Leroy Blake; dear friend, Patricia Leon Blake.

Royann leaves to cherish memories: her only son, Robert Blake (Marquite Blake) and her mate, Robbie M. Hodgepeth; three brothers, Benny C. Blake, David G. Blake and Dennis L. Blake; nephews, Shawn, Dennis II, Devin, Robert, Corey and Jerome; nieces, Helena and Yvonne; dear friends, Gladys Wood, Ricordo Foster, John Dinkins, Sister Gloria Jean and Yolanda Franklin; and a host of other family members. Royanne will be truly missed by all of us. Rest In Heaven (R.I.H.).
