Obituary

On Friday December 11, 2020 Aumarri Alpha Cohen earned his Heavenly wings.

Aumarri was born to Tiffany Thomas and Robby Cohen on October 7, 1998. He attended the local schools of Duval County, graduating from Jean Ribault High School, Class of 2017. He was wise beyond his years and had a heart of gold. Aumarri enjoyed making people laugh, he motivated many to stay on the right path, follow their passion and accomplish their goals. Aumarri adored his mother and loved his family. He was a TRUE TRENDSETTER “ya feel me!”

Aumarri was preceded in death by his grandfathers, Willie Howard Thomas and Adell Williams; best friend/brother, Michel “Big Mike” Rice Jr.

Aumarri leaves to cherish his memories with his parents, Tiffany T. Thomas and Robby L. Cohen; twin brother, Kamarri O. Cohen; sisters, Kurrea, Carrea; brothers, Eugene, Thiago, Rozay and Dakara; siblings, Ashley, Destiny, Sisteria, Robby. Robyn and Leland; grandmother, Sandra P. Williams; aunts, Kimberlyn Warren and Shakira; uncles, Jermaine (Tasha), Leonard and Justin; nieces, Kaloni, Vintage, Carsun; nephew, Alphonso; godmother, Terrica G. Matthews; godparents, Valentino and Zenobia Williams; first cousins, Tarraca, Lindsey, Sade, Jermaine Jr. and Tedra; special cousins, Rae’quan, De’Kolby, Robert, Breaunee, Rae’ven, Steven, Trey, Blake, Taylor, Rodriq and Rodriquez; devoted friends, Costa, Compai, Jhaquille, Jarrion, Quan, BreShae and Vince; a host of great aunts, uncles and sorrowing friends.

“A Letter From Mom”

Dear Aumarri,

My first born son. My heart is broken in such an usual way. I never expected you to leave me this way. I can’t believe or understand why you left me and went away. You know I would have done anything for you to stay. I question myself everyday, why did God choose to take you away. Aumarri were you ready? Was there anything I could have done for you to stay here with me? I absolutely loved and adored you and I wish you were here with me. Give me a sign to know you are good. Come and see me anytime you can. Honestly, Aumarri, I know you are in better hands “God’s Hands”. I know you are happier now than you can ever be on this earth. Even though, I want you here with me, God needed you more. He now have a TRUE TRENDSETTER up above. Aumarri please watch over me everyday, keep me strong until it’s my day to join you. I love and miss you sooo much!

Love, Mom
