Safely Home

*I am home in heaven, dear ones; Oh, so happy and so bright.
There is a perfect joy and beauty in this everlasting light.
All the pain and grief is over, every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever, safely home in heaven at last.
Did you wonder I so calmly trod the valley of the shade?
Oh, but Jesus' love illuminated Every dark and fearful glade.
And He came Himself to meet me in the way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus' arm to lean on could I have one doubt or dread?
Then you must not grieve so sorely, for I love you dearly still.
Try to look beyond death's shadows
Pray to trust our Father's will.
There is work still waiting for you, so you must not idly stand.
Do it now, while life remaineth; you shall rest in Jesus' land.
When that work is all completed, He will gently call you home;
Oh, the rapture of that meeting; Oh, the joy to see you come!*

Obituary

Elouise J. Hunt (Tiny) was born on April 21, 1924 in Bamberg, SC to the late Wilbur and Elizabeth Jamison. She was educated in the Bamberg County School District in Denmark, SC.

She confessed Christ at an early age and upon moving to Jacksonville, FL, she joined Abyssinia Missionary Baptist Church, where she was a Deaconess and served faithfully for over 60 plus years.

Elouise always had a passion for caring for children; from raising her own to providing in-home childcare services. In her senior years, she worked as a daycare teacher at ABC Academy.

In 1965, she married the late Deacon Hubert Hunt Jr. and they enjoyed over 42 years of marriage.

On Tuesday, December 22, 2020, God looked down and with his touch of spiritual peace and quietness, He took Elouise into his loving arms and rocked her gently to sleep. She was preceded in death by her husband, Deacon Hubert Hunt Jr; her brothers: Theodise Jamison, Dee Willie Jamison, Wilbur Jamison, Daniel Jamison, and Curtis Jamison; and her grandson, Johnnie Horn.
