To Those I Love & Those That Love Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go; I have so many things to see and do; you must not tie yourself to me with tears; be happy that we had so many years; I gave you my love, you can only guess how much you gave me in happiness; I thank you for the love you have shown but now it's time I traveled on alone. So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for a while that we must part, so bless the memories within your heart. I won't be far away for life goes on so if you need me, call and I will come though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near. And if you listen with your heart, you will hear, all my love around you, loud and clear. And then, when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you at Heaven's gate with a smile and a "Welcome Home."

Acknowledgements

The family of the late Nora M. White wishes to thank you for your comforting messages, floral tributes and other expressions of kindness shown to us during this time of bereavement. May God bless each of you.

Legacy of Life

And I will go and prepare a place for you, and I will come again and receive you unto myself; that where I am you shall be also. John 14:3

Nora M. White, the oldest of 14 siblings, was born on May 5, 1947 in Hahira, Georgia to Elnora Powell and Warren Washington. She was preceded in death by her parents; son, Howard Green II; grandson, Howard Green III; sisters, Helen White and April White Walsh; brother-in-law, Mark Lucky; and aunt, Doretha Moreland.

Change of Address

I've changed my address to heaven. I've crossed the great divide. I know there's no sorrow or crying, because I've reached the other side. I am so happy to be here, for the Lord Himself I see. I've changed my address to heaven, I bid this world goodbye. I now live forever with Jesus in my new home in the sky. I have no burdens or heartaches and from tears
I am now free.

I've changed my address to heaven, I'm safe forevermore. For the Lord built a mansion and my name is on the door. You can find us walking together, for where He is, I'll always be.
I've changed my address.
