"A Sister's Love"

There was never a moment I didn't love you. In all I have done to care for you... I never felt like you were a burden in my life, I never complained or was filled with strife. Words can't express how my heart now feels. I miss you so much and wish you were still here. Each day as I pass by your room, I'm reminded that my baby sister is gone too soon. Though I knew one day that we would depart, I couldn't imagine how this would hurt my heart. This is truly going to be a lonely world without you by my side... Going to and fro without my ride or die. Had I known that your time was so close, I would have asked you to sing and dance once more. Now all I have are memories of us My "Tootsie" is gone above... But death can't stop A Sister's Love. I will always love you, Tootsie.

~Love, Pinky
