A Journey With The Lord

Life is but a stopping place, a pause in what's to be, a resting place along the road, to sweet eternity. We all have different journeys, different paths along the way. We all were meant to learn some things, but never meant to stay. Our destination is a place, far greater than we know, for some, the journey's slow; and when the journey finally ends, We'll claim a great reward, and find an everlasting peace, together with the Lord.

In Memory of Me

*Someday you will remember me
You'll think of my smile and laughter tears;
But also know that I am free
And I'm gone to the hereafter*

*You won't see me at the corner store
Nor under the tree
For God has made his decision
And I had to answer his call*

*You won't see me on Tyler Street
Eating or cutting a step
For my strength has left me
And I've needed lots of help*

*So, I thank everyone that has helped out
Gave a hug and lent a hand or two
Who thought it Christ-like to serve
Realizing it could have been you*

*So, in memory of good times spent with me
Find a friend like "ED"
Visit your friends and family
And let God handle the rest*
