To Those I Love & Those That Love Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go; I have so many things to see and do; you must not tie yourself to me with tears; be happy that we had so many years; I gave you my love, you can only guess how much you gave me in happiness; I thank you for the love you have shown but now it's time I traveled on alone.

So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for a while that we must part, so bless the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away for life goes on so if you need me, call and I will come though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near. And if you listen with your heart, you will hear, all my love around you, loud and clear.

And then, when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you at Heaven's gate with a smile and a "Welcome Home."

Acknowledgement

On behalf of the family we wish to express our gratitude for your many kindnesses, as evidence in thought and deed, and for your audience at this service.

Obituary of Harry Belonce Cooper, Sr.

Harry was born in Ocilla, Georgia on May 27, 1931 to Andrew and Gussie Cooper. He confessed Christ at an early age.

Harry later married Velma Hyman Cooper in Kingsland, Georgia on June 29, 1968. From this union one son, Eric, and two daughters, Angelia and Lisa were born.

Harry departed this life on Monday, February 1, 2021. He was preceded in death by his parents, Andrew and Gussie Cooper; siblings, Melanie Cooper, Burnell Cooper Miller, Bernita Davis, Carrie Wade, Mildred Cooper, Nathaniel Cooper, Andrew Cooper and Jessie Cooper.

Harry leaves to mourn his passing: a loving wife of over 52 years, Mrs. Velma Hyman Cooper; children, Angelia Patrice Cooper, Eric Morris Cooper (Katrina), Lisa Marie Cooper, Betty Cooper Ford (Earl), and Harry Cooper, Jr.; grandchildren, Alisha Dickerson, Rodney Wallace, Jr., Deshoun Brown, Moses Brown, Jenne Cooper, Hassan Ford (Katrina), Shanelle Gadsden, Ericka Cooper, Jayla Cooper, and Eric Cooper, Jr.; 12 great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.

"Miss Me, But Let Me Go"

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room ,why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not for long and not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared; miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take and each must go alone.

It's all part of the master plan, a step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart, go to the friends we know.

Laugh at all the things we used to do; miss me, but let me go.
